

On mail-order brides

Wednesday, 16 September 2009

Last Updated Tuesday, 09 March 2010

The continued mail-order bride cases of Filipino women to Korea merely shows that existing good laws like the anti-trafficking of persons act is rendered useless by the failure of the agencies concerned to implement the same to its full extent thereby depriving our women the protection they need against abuse and exploitation.